South Carolina and for Flexible Regulation)

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) on the request of NextG Networks of NY, Inc. d/b/a NextG Networks East (“NextG” or the “Company”) for approval of a company name change. NextG currently holds a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold and facilities-based local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services in South Carolina pursuant to the authority granted by Commission Order No. 2007-81, dated February 1, 2007.

By informational filing received December 10, 2012, NextG advises the Commission that the Company has changed its name from NextG to Crown Castle NG East, Inc. The name change, according to NextG, will enable the Company to align its legal name with how the Company is identified and recognized by its customers and the general public. NextG asserts that the name change exclusively relates to a legal name change and is not sought in conjunction with any merger, acquisition, consolidation or other change in corporate structure or ownership. The name change amendment has been filed with the South Carolina Secretary of State's Office, and a copy of the South Carolina Certificate of Authorization for the Company's new name, Crown Castle NG East, Inc., is attached to NextG's name change request.

After review and consideration of NextG's request, the Commission concludes that the request for approval of a change in the Company's name should be granted.

1. The Application for approval of a change in the name of NextG Networks of NY, Inc. d/b/a NextG Networks East is approved, and accordingly, the Commission's records will hereby be amended to reflect the Company's new name of Crown Castle NG East, Inc.

2. Although the Company currently has no tariffs on file with the Commission, when future tariffs are filed, they shall be filed with the Commission's E-Tariff system reflecting the new name of Crown Castle NG East, Inc.

3. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.
